Introducing Your Captain...

Captain Wesley Dunlop

Wesley was born near Glasgow and at the age of 2, relocated to Mallorca where his parents ran a successful bar in the 'lively' resort of Magaluf. Wesley's initial career ambition was to become an airline pilot, however it was his father who suggested a career navigating on the sea. Wesley commenced his sea going career in 1998 with Airtours Sun Cruises and in 2004 he joined Saga Cruise Lines where he rose through the ranks quickly and was promoted to Master in 2010 at the age of just 30. In 2016 he was delighted to be offered the chance to join P&O Cruises, and during his time has now commanded Aurora, Arcadia and most recently Britannia. When at home Wesley loves spending quality time with his fiancée Fiona, his two sons Corey and Joey and he also plays the odd round of golf (badly!). He considers being asked to be Iona's Captain the pinnacle of his career and is delighted to welcome you all on board this beautiful new ship!

Your allocated muster station is indicated on the back of your cabin door and on your cruise card. There is no need to take your life jacket with you. We ask that all guests watch the life jacket demonstration and P&O Cruises safety video on your cabin TV.
