

COMMODORE SIR
JAMES CHARLES

KBE CBE RD RNR (1865 – 1928)

With quite the reputation for doing things on a grand scale, Charles' dinner parties aboard Aquitania were well renowned as opulently social affairs, often centring around entire herds of exotic feather-gilded fare.

Ever the showman, he bowed out of service just as grandly upon the completion of his 728th transatlantic crossing—passing away in his quarters on what was to be the eve of his retirement.

'OVER THE TOP'
(for two to share) — 22.⁵⁰

This aromatic and refreshing sharing cocktail is extravagantly presented, just the way Sir James would come to expect.

G'Vine Gin • Sloe Gin
Cherry Brandy • Fever-Tree Tonic
Fresh Fruit Carnish • Fresh Basil
Carbon Dioxide

COMMODORE SIR
ARTHUR ROSTRON

KBE CBE RD RNR (1869 – 1940)

Calmer than the oceans he called home, Rostron is perhaps the most celebrated of all Cunard captains. His repose lead to the safe rescue of all survivors of Titanic, prudently redirecting heating power to the engines and ensuring Carpathia's swift arrival.

His composure finally faltered when he refused to travel to the shipbreakers with his beloved Mauretania, overcome with emotion after ten years as her master.

'PUNCH ROMAINE À LA
CARPATHIA' – 14.⁷⁵

Believed to be the last libation served aboard Titanic, this reinvented Punch Romaine maintains the original's intriguing mid-point between dessert and drink.

Advocaat • Limoncello • Cream
Sherry • Lime Juice • Mallow

COMMODORE SIR
EDGAR BRITTEN

KB RD RNR (1874 – 1936)

From humble Bradford beginnings and against the will of his family, Britten escaped to sea at just fifteen. Steadfastly working his way up from the bottom with nothing but his own perseverance as his guide.

In the years to come that same decisiveness would see him appointed Commodore to the newly created Cunard White Star Line and first master to Queen Mary, commanding both her maiden voyage and the taking of the celebrated Blue Riband.

'YORKSHIRE
PACESETTER' – 18.⁷⁵

A fascinating blend of 'Blue Riband' XO Cognac and the flavours of Parkin—a classic Yorkshire cake—made in the style of an Old Fashioned.

Martell Cordon Bleu XO
King's Ginger Liqueur
Black Treacle • Mixed Spice

COMMODORE SIR
ROBERT IRVING

KB OBE RD RNR (1877 – 1954)

While other Commodores tended to be of modest origin, Robert Irving was certainly not. Heralding from a wealthy and well-connected Scottish Border family, he was chieftain of his clan.

Irving's service to the company saw his command of both Aquitania and Queen Mary—once boldly docking the 81,235-ton Queen in New York without the usual aid of 12 powerful tugs—before retiring to his family seat in 1944.

'CHIEFTAIN OF THE CLAN' – 1675

As a creature of habit and a dedicated collector of briar pipes, Irving would have likely approved of this re-imagining of his mid-morning coffee.

- Rascally Liquor
- Mr Black Cold Brew
- Coffee Liqueur • Licor 43 • Cognac
- Freshly Made Espresso
- Honey • Cream

R1

COMMODORE SIR
JAMES BISSET

KB CBE RD RNR LLD (1883 – 1966)

Valuable cargo came to be something of a defining characteristic of Bisset's tenure with the company.

Throughout WWII he commanded both Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth across the Atlantic, once carrying a record 16,683 American GIs and becoming a personal friend to Churchill before, during peacetime, safely delivering the Magna Carta home to Lincoln Cathedral by sleeping with it safely stowed beneath his bed.

'THE COMMODORE'S
CURE' – 25.50

Bisset's legendary passenger seasickness remedy – a glass of chilled bubbly after 24 hours of fasting – blends with his close friendship of Churchill to inspire this contemporary Champagne cocktail.

- Pol Roger Cuvée Sir Winston Churchill • Plymouth Gin
- Crème à la Fraise des Bois
- Freshly Squeezed Lemon Juice
- Sugar Syrup

COMMODORE SIR
CYRIL ILLINGWORTH

KB RD RNR (1883 – 1958)

A proud countryman, Illingworth was once quoted as saying of the British: "We have the great intangibles—character, experience, patience, determination. We are not called Great Britain for nothing!"

A man of great endurance as well as fine words, aboard Ascania he once stood on the bridge for 75 hours without sleep during an exceptionally violent storm. His tenacity was well rewarded, rising to eventually become captain of Queen Mary in 1942.

'LAND OF HOP &
GLORY' – 16.75

Inspired by Illingworth's love of all things traditionally British, this malty concoction is the quintessential rural pub experience enshrined in cocktail form.

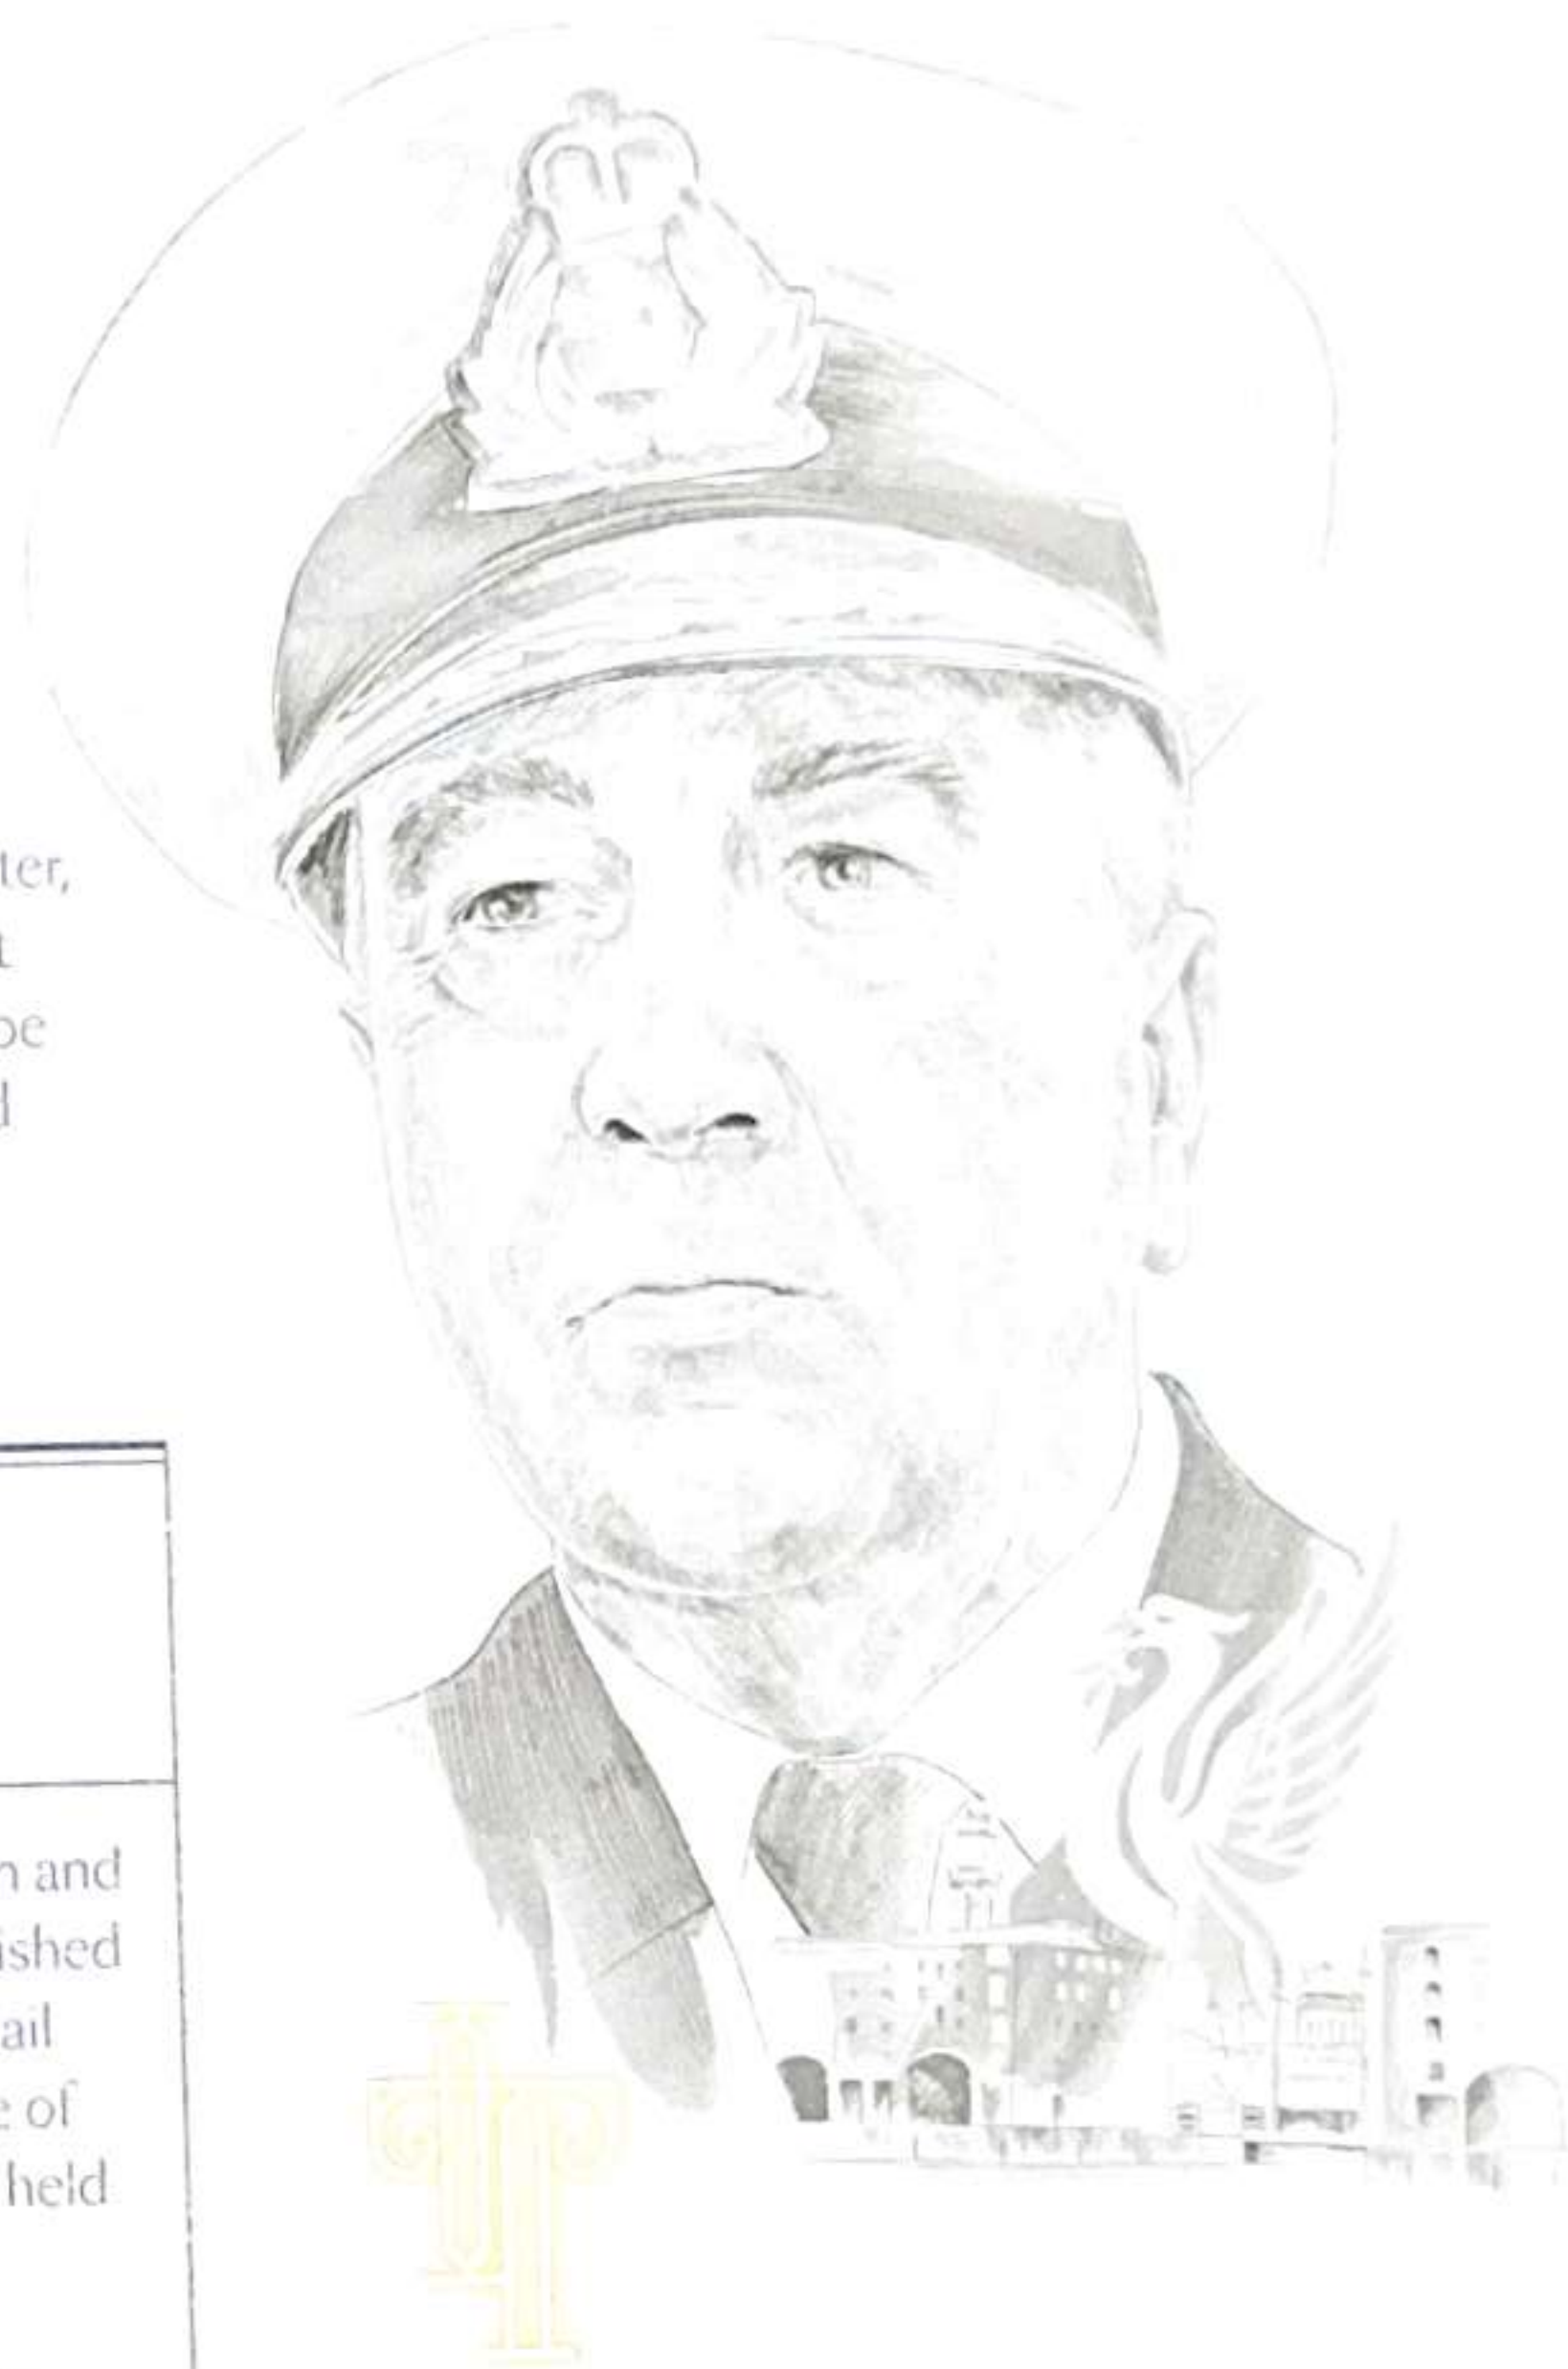

Somerset Cider Brandy • Cognac
King's Ginger • Malt Extract
Ginger Ale • Hop Bitters
Beer Foam

COMMODORE SIR
IVAN THOMPSON

KB (1894 – 1970)

Raised in the constant presence of Liverpool's industrious shipyards, it is perhaps no surprise that Thompson grew into a seafaring life in steam—nor that he became a near fanatical Liverpool Football Club supporter.

Assuming command of Queen Elizabeth in 1951 and Queen Mary a year later, he remained insistent that the latest football scores be telegraphed and delivered to him on the bridge every Sunday.

'ALL CONSUMING
PASSION' – 15.75

Blending Liverpool Gin and the colours of his cherished club, this vibrant cocktail distils the very essence of that which Thompson held most dear.

Liverpool Gin • Vanilla Vodka
Passion Fruit Purée • Pineapple Juice
Freshly Squeezed Lime Juice
Grenadine
