MARELLA CRUISES

Friday 14th July 2023

Magic of Spain

Arrival: 08.00

All On-board: 17.30

Welcome to

Valencia, Spain

Valencia is an expert in marrying up the old and the new. Ancient Arabian architecture and Gothic churches are given a run for their money by new icons like the futuristic City of Arts and Sciences. Beyond the city borders, Albufera National Park follows the coast south. The massive lake here is home to 250 species of birds, including flamingos.

Complimentary Shuttle Bus To City

We'll be docked around 4km's from the city of Valencia today (around 25 minute drive), therefore the port will operate a complimentary shuttle bus service to the city. The service starts at 08.30 and buses will operate every 20 minutes or so, with the last bus back to the ship from the city at 17.00. The buses will pick-up and drop-off at the same place, near to the Serrano Towers. Just so you know... We expect the service to be busy with queues likely during peak times of 10.00 - 12.00, so why not head ashore earlier before the afternoon sunshine.

- Valencia Cathedral is a Gothic masterpiece framed by flying buttresses and intricately-carved arches. The chalice here is said to have been used by Christ during the Last Supper.
- Fallas Museum collects memorabilia from the La Fallas festivals, when hundreds of effigies are burned on bonfires. The best creations are rescued and displayed on the museum's shelves.
