Welcome to Stavanger

Arrival: 9.30am

All aboard: 4.30pm

The gateway to Norway's spectacularly scenic fjordland, Stavanger is also a town with its own rich heritage as it is regarded as the 'Cradle of the Vikings'. Iona will dock right next to Gamle Stavanger, the old quarter, with its collection of 200-year-old white wooden houses, 12th century cathedral modelled on Winchester Cathedral, markets, craft stores and art galleries. The Three Swords monument in the Hafstrond rock recalling the Viking sea battle won by King Harald the Fairhair to create Norway as one kingdom back in the 9th century. The other major landmark is a short boat trip away through the delightful Stavanger archipelago to the 2,000ft high Pulpit Rock (Preikestolen).

Currency NOK Norwegian Krone
NOK for your purchases whilst ashore are on sale at Reception. Please note, we only accept 50 and 100 NOK notes.

Shore Experiences
(Deck 7) Aft

Explore Ashore...

Going on a Shore Experience?

Here's some handy hints to make it a little easier:

- On arrival in port, please don't head to the gangways until after the 'Welcome' announcement has been made from the bridge.
- The gangway locations are shown on the digital screens positioned at all guest staircases.
- Please meet on the quayside for your tour 15 minutes before the departure time.
- Once ashore, the Shore Experiences team will be available to guide you to your specific tour meeting point.
- Have your cruise cards & tour tickets handy as you head to the gangway.

All guests leaving on tours before 11.30am should use the forward gangways only.

Enjoy your experience ashore.

Shipboard Information

Passports Ashore

Is it a local requirement to take my passport ashore today: No

Ship's Security Notice

In order to prevent unauthorised persons boarding the ship, you are required to carry your "Cruise Card" with you when going ashore. Be aware that we have established a secure area around the vessel and our security procedures require that you must be prepared to show your cruise card when entering this area, in addition to showing it to the security staff at the gangway when leaving or boarding the ship. We kindly ask you not to accept and bring on board any parcels or packages from strangers. Before boarding the ship, you may also be asked by our security staff to open parcels or handbags which you are carrying. We are sure that you will appreciate this security is in the best interests of all concerned.

Finding Your Way Around

The staircase and lifts have different colours to help you find your way. Forward is blue which represent the Horizon and looking out to sea, Midship is grey which represents the Moon above and Aft is red which represents the sunset and looking out over the back of the ship.

Stavanger Gangway

Usually between 11.30am-1.30pm our gangways for getting back on board are very busy and excess queuing will be experienced. We thank you in advanced for your patience and understanding and you may wish to adjust your return time to the ship to avoid this busy period.

Old Stavanger

Iona will dock in the city centre of Stavanger and next to Old Stavanger. This area comprises 173 small wooden houses from the turn of the 18th century. Most of them are in use as private homes and families live their daily lives there. Please bear this in mind and respect their privacy while enjoying your walk in this historic part of the city.

Norwegian Tax Refund

Any guests who have purchased items ashore in a 'Tax free shop' and have received a Global Blue Form 'tax refund' receipt by the shopkeepers, may claim tax back from the local officials. Tax refunds in Norway are applicable for any single purchase to the value of 315 Norwegian Krone or above (i.e. one purchase in one shop, not several purchases adding up to 315 Krone). We have arranged for Tax Refund Officials to be in attendance in the Atrium, Deck 6 on Thursday 25 August in Haugesund.

Dietary Requirements

The dishes from the main menu can be adapted to suit your needs and preferences in the Aqua, Coral, Opal and Pearl Restaurants. Similarly, whilst dining in the Horizon Buffet our knowledgeable Headwaiters, Buffet Stewards or Chefs will be happy to explain the ingredients used in each dish.
