

Kora La

"Kora La" is the name of a mountain pass in the Himalayas on the borders of Tibet and Nepal, between Everest and K2. This area is described as the "Abode of the Snows" and in Tibetan, the word "Kora" is used to describe a pilgrimage to a sacred site.

We've taken our inspiration from this stunning region to create a menu that combines both Chinese and Indian dishes. Working with world-famous, Pan Asian chef Ian Pengelley we've added flavours of Thai, Vietnamese and Japanese food to our popular Kora La menu which are inspired by his own travels.
